The famed Redskins Marching Band which represented Washington in national Lions Club parade, July 7, 1949.

1949

Won 4, Lost 7, Tied 1

July 7—Washington represented by Redskins Band in national Lions Club parade up New York's Fifth Avenue.

Oct. 16—Two of Sam Baugh's four sons—David and Todd—watch their daddy play football for the first time. He shows them plenty. Football's flingingest father completes 16 of 20 passes—four of them for touchdowns, 25, 32, 49, and 66 yards, in that order.

Dec. 8—Redskins travel by plane for the first time. After three-hour delay due to engine trouble, and despite snowstorms enroute, they fly to Los Angeles for the season's finale against Rams.

Dec. 9—Three teams from All-America Conference—Cleveland Browns, San Francisco Forty-Niners and Baltimore Colts—join the National League.

Dec. 11—Sam Baugh completes 29 of 48 passes for 309 yards and three touchdowns to win league's passing championship for sixth year. His completions and his attempts are Redskins records.

THE BEST:

Ball-Carrier—Rob Goode, 18th in league: 261 yds, 61 tries, 4.3 avg.

Passer—Sam Baugh led league: 255 passes, 145 completions, 1,903 yds, 18 TDs.

Receiver—Hugh Taylor, 6th: 45 catches, 781 yds, 9 TDs.

Scorer—Hugh Taylor, 11th: 9 TDs for 54 pts.

Punter—Dick Poillon, 2d: 40.9 avg. in 66 kicks.

Punt Returner—Dan Sandifer, 8th: 18 for 199 yds, 11.1 avg.

Kickoff Returner—Dan Sandifer, 5th: 24 for 518 yds, 21.6 avg.

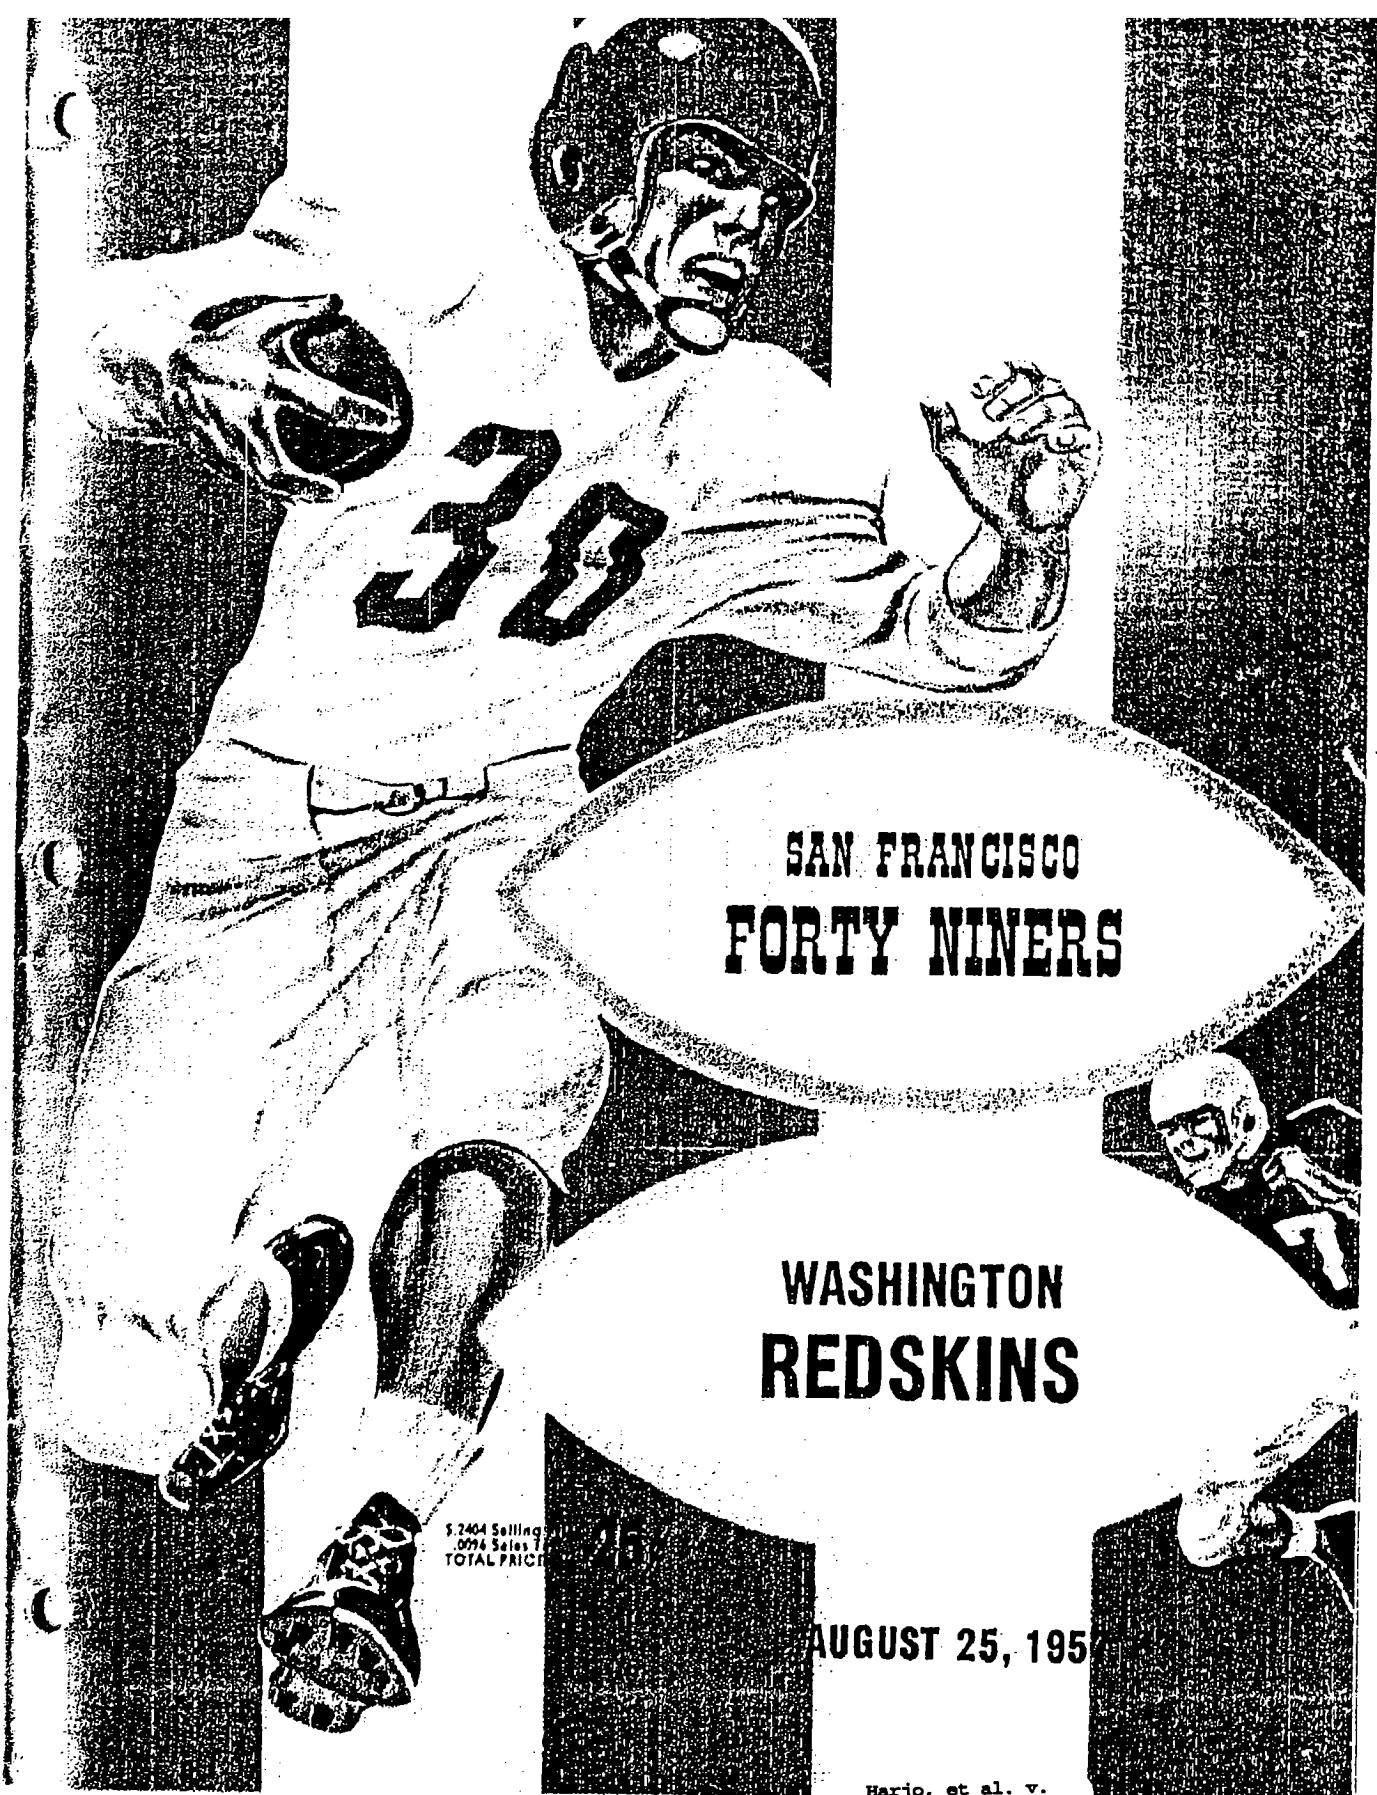

Interceptor—Dan Sandifer, 13th: 5 for 82 yds.

Another bright innovation in the entertainment program at each game will be "The Redskins Singers," newly formed Broadway male chorus of 16. They will join their voices with the rich and nationally known baritone of Gene Archer, NBC and Gridiron Club soloist. Providing accompaniment will be Eddie Pierce's Redskins Band.

The 100-piece band is an integral part of the entertainment at all Redskins games. It is the oldest—and the best—of pro football bands.

It all started in 1937 when a milk company employes' band asked permission to perform at the Redskins' second game. For the rest of the season, these musical milkmen played to their hearts' content—and to the fans' delight. By the next season, Screen Star Corinne Griffith had written lyrics to "HAIL TO THE REDSKINS!", first of all pro football songs, and the band played on.

It has performed in Pittsburgh, New York, Cleveland, Boston, Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Columbia, S. C. It has played alongside Waring, Whiteman and the Philharmonic in Philadelphia's Musical Festival. It has paraded in Inauguration celebrations, represented the Nation's Capital at the national Lions Clubs' convention and marched up Broadway at the head of thousands of invading fans.

The famed Redskins Marching Band.

Won 8, Lost 2, Tied 1

Aug. 2—Redskins set forth on first coast-to-coast training trip in football history. U.S. Senator Lewis B. Schwellenbach features train-side ceremonies. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Wash., near Spokane.

Aug. 7—Hal Kemp, favorite dance band leader, contracts to make exclusive recording of "Hail to the Redskins!" for RCA—the first time a pro football team's rally song has been plattered.

Oct. 1—Only scoreless tie in Redskins history as Giants are battled in rain and mud. Giants miss four field goals, Redskins one. Skins have first down on 4-yard line, but are stopped.

Oct. 15—Redskins are backed up to their 1-yard line. From kick formation, standing deep in his end zone, Frank Filchock flips pass to Andy Farkas who goes all the way for touchdown. Longest pass play in National League history. Official distance: 99 yards (2-yard pass, 97-yard run).

Dec. 3—Eastern championship game . . . Giants lead, 9-7, with one minute remaining . . . and the Redskins hammering away on the goal line. Tackle Bo Russell drops back on fourth down to the 15-yard line and kicks placement—but fans' cheers are choked. Referee Bill Halloran rules kick wide.

THE BEST:

Ball-Carrier—Andy Farkas, 9th in league: 547 yds, 139 tries, 3.9 avg.
Passer—Frank Filchock, 5th: 89 passes, 55 completed, 1,094 yds, 11 TDs.
Receiver—Wayne Millner, 10th: 19 catches, 294 yds, 4 TDs.

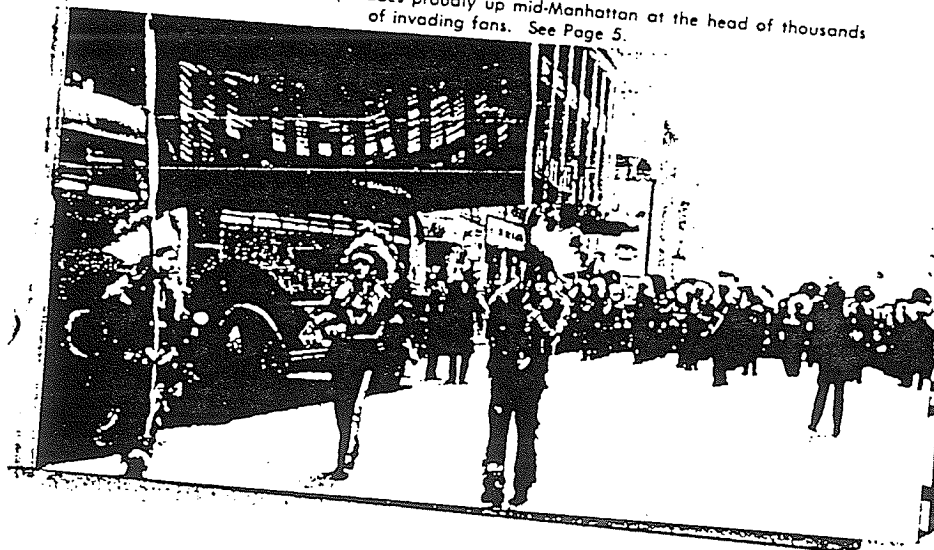

Scorer—Andy Farkas led league: 11 TDs, 2 extra pts, one field goal, 68 pts.

Famed Redskins Band parades proudly up mid-Manhattan at the head of thousands of invading fans. See Page 5.

- Aug. 9—Redskins Band founded. First of its kind . . . still the best.
 Aug. 17—"Hail to the Redskins!" rings out across the land for the first time. Famed fight song (first also of its kind) introduced over coast-to-coast radio network. Words by Corinne Griffith, music by Barnee Breeskin.
 Sept. 11—A trick play makes a guard (Bill Young) eligible for pass and the Alabamian lumbers 67 lardy yards for touchdown to beat Bert Bell's startled Eagles, 26-23.
 Sept. 18—Eight seconds to go, Brooklyn leads, 16-13. Bob Masterson kicks angled 15-yard field goal to tie.
 Sept. 25—Andy Farkas sets all-time Redskins scoring record with three touchdowns and two extra points against Cleveland Rams. His 20 points are the most ever scored in a single game by a Redskin.
 Oct. 16—Farkas runs the wrong way to give Lions a safety and an early lead but he comes back before Detroit home folks to be hero in 7-5 triumph.

MATINEE AT MID-FIELD

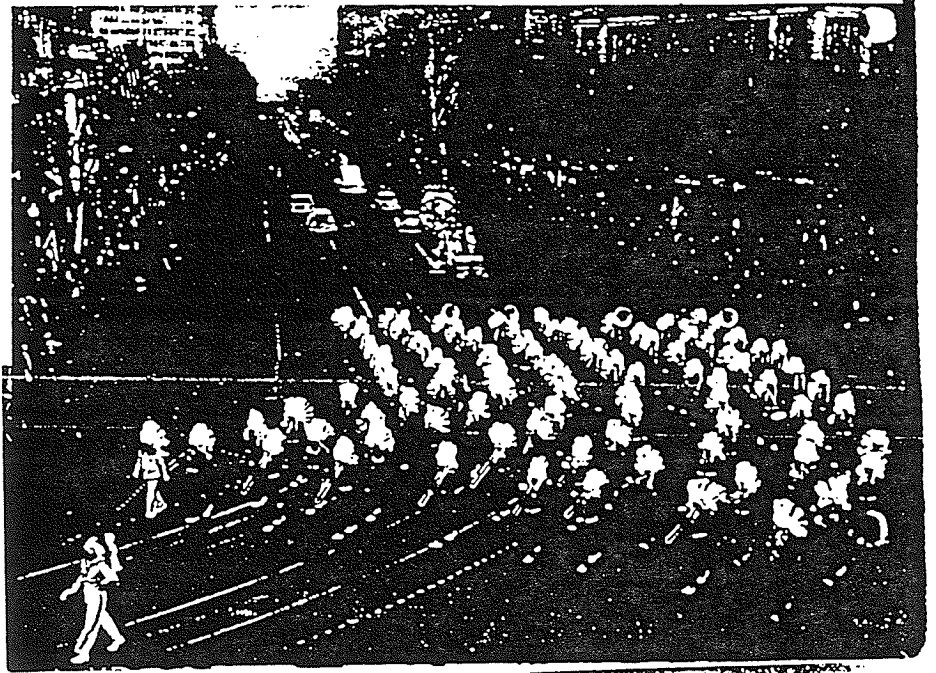

"DAYS FOR DIXIE" once again this year are important features of half-time showtime at Griffith Stadium.

Each year two States are singled out for special homage by The Redskins and their sponsors — AMOCO and Marlboro, through whose cooperation outstanding high school and college bands are brought to the Nation's Capital to pay tribute to their home states.

Georgia Day is October 18. The famed 130-piece band of the University of Georgia, known as The Dixie Red Coats, will perform at half-time as the Peach State is honored.

North Carolina Day is observed Dec. 6. The 100-piece Reynolds High School Band from Winston-Salem, N. C. (home of the Piedmont Bowl) will represent the Tarheel State.

The Redskins Band swings around historic Treasury Corner on Pennsylvania Avenue in the last Inaugural Parade. That's Music Director Eddie Pierce above.

First (and still tops) pro football song was published in 1938. Movie Star Corinne Griffith wrote words, Band Leader Barnee Breeskin, the music.

Nov. 17—Bears beaten, 7-3, thanks to Dick Todd. The twinkle-toed Texas Aggie scores game's only touch-down on 15-yard pass play, then in final 10 seconds overhauls speedy George McAfee on 2-yd line.

Dec. 1—Miniature-sized Davy O'Brien thrills Griffith Stadium throng with record 33 completions in 60.

Dec. 8—Seventy-three to oh! Bears steam-roller injury riddled Redskins in world championship game. The box score: First Quarter—Osinski, 68 yds around end; Luckman, 1-yd plunge after 80-yd march; Maniaci, 42 yds around end. Second Quarter—Luckman to Kavanaugh, 30 yds. Third Quarter—Plasman, 15 yds with interception; Nolting, 23 yds up middle; McAfee, 35 yds with interception; Turner, 30 yds with interception. Fourth Quarter—Clark, 44 yds off tackle; Famiglietti, 2-yd plunge after blocked kick; Clark 42 yds off tackle. Oddity: Skins had more first downs than Bears!

Ball-Carrier—Dick Todd, 5th in league: 408 yds, 76 tries, 5.3 avg.
Passer—Sam Baugh, 1st: 177 passes, 111 comp., 1,367 yds, 10 TD-
Receiver—Jimmy Johnston, 3d: 29 catches, 350 yds, 3 TDs.
Scorer—Dick Todd, 3d: 9 TDs, 54 pts.

And lest we forget . . .

This annual homage to the men of our armed forces—past and present—was conceived by Richard H. (Dick) Viancour, Redskins assistant general manager, and Band Director, who died in June, 1961. Mr. Viancour was a past commander of the Vincent Costello Post of the American Legion and chairman of the legion's drum and bugle contest committee.
